Git Commands

Setup and configuration

Set username and email.

1. git config –global user.name “your github name”
2. git config –global user.email “youremail@gmail.com”

Check your configuration:

- Git config –list

Basic Operations

Initialize a new repository

- git init

Clone an existing repository

- git clone https://github.com/user/repository.git

Check the status of your repository:

- git status

Working with commits

Add files to staging area:

- git add <file> or git add .

Commit changes:

- git commit –m “commit message”

Commit with all changes including untracked files

- git commit –a –m “commit message”

Branching and merging

List all branches

- git branch

Create a new branch

- git branch <branch_name>

Swtich to a branch:

- git checkout <branch_name>

Create and switch to a new branch

- git checkout –b <branch_name>

Merge to a branch into current branch

- git merge <branch_name>

Delete a branch

- git branch –d <branch_name>

Remote Repositories

Add a new remote repositories

- git remote add origin https://github.com/user/repository.git

List remote repositories

- git remote –v

Fetch changes from remote

- git fetch origin

Push changes to a remote

- git push origin <branch_name>

Pull changes from remote

- git pull origin <branch_name>

Undoing Changes

Undo changes in the working directory:

- git checkout --<file>

Unstage files

- git reset HEAD <file>

Revert a commit by creating a new commit

- git revert <commit_id>

Reset to a previous commit

- git reset –hard <commit_id>

Staging Changes

Stash changes

- git stash

List stashed changes

- git stash list

Apply stashed changes

- git stash apply

Apply and drop stash changes

- git stash pop